

Travel information

Sunday 5 July

Major changes to train times

All day no direct trains between Birmingham Moor Street and London Marylebone. Services will depart/terminate from London Paddington all day.

Services on the Aylesbury via Amersham to London Marylebone line will run as normal and continue to use Marylebone Station.

Check your journey on our website.

Chiltern Railways

If you think our way, travel our way.

Changes to the Birmingham - Stratford-upon-Avon - Banbury - High Wycombe - London Marylebone line on Sunday 5 July

Chiltern Railways services are running into London Paddington all day. In addition, the line is also closed until approx 11:00 between Gerrards Cross and Banbury. A bus replacement service will be in operation until this time as shown in Map 1. After approx 11:00, the line will reopen between Gerrards Cross and Banbury but remain closed between West Ruislip and London Marylebone as shown in Map 2.

Please note, your ticket is valid on this day between London Marylebone and London Paddington on the Bakerloo Line and on the Central Line between West Ruislip and Marylebone (via Oxford Circus).

Staying informed:

- Keep up to date on our website. Register for alerts sent to your mobile or e-mail.
- Download our app to check travel information on the go.
- We're also on Twitter. Follow @chilternrailway

Check your journey on our website.

Chiltern Railways

If you think our way, travel our way.