	Apologies to customers delayed right now. If you have a timetable related question, I'm here until 9 to tweet, just use #ttmbev in tweet
When will you have a service from #WarwickParkway into #Marylebone arriving before 0700? #ttmbev	@ Mark Aldrich Due to essential overnight engineering works the current 0536 is the earliest we can run from WRP #ttmbev
Will there be any electrification of the current route? #ttmbev	@ PoliticsTrain Network Rail are looking at the feasibility of this in the 2020s but nothing is confirmed #ttmbev
@chilternrailways #ttmbev London bound from Solihull, will tickets be accepted on Virgin from New St? And will you buy me a coffee?	If you're delayed right now then your ticket is valid due to the disruption. 1/2 #ttmbev Happy to get you a coffee the next time I see you at Meet the Manager? #ttmbev 2/2
Very busy on the 8:07 from Banbury people standing most of the way. But thanks for the warning and communication #ttmbev	Apologies it is so busy, it's due to the cancellation of the previous service because of the broken down freight train. #ttmbev
